MILES FOR BRASTIC ACTION NOW

Washington, April 4.—Brastic action by Congress to prevent the spread of Bolshevik doctrines in this country was urged by Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, retired, in his address last night before the Loyal Legion.

He declared the safety of the Nation depended upon quick and effective action and unless steps were taken to prevent the spread of the "Red Peril" the country soon would be in the throes of revolution and anarchy.

Congress, he said, should prohibit the sale of free speech that incites reason and that kind of personal liberty which means the destruction of law and order.

He expressed the opinion, however, that the vast army of American soldiers who went overseas would check to a large extent the attempt to spread Bolshevism in this country, and thus prevent the Government from being overthrown by "long-haired men and short-haired women."

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the undersigned, wish to express our sincere thanks to all who so lovingly extended their sympathy, also to those who sent the beautiful flowers and spiritual bouquet, and to all who in any way helped to lighten our great sorrow and we assure them their kindness will never be forgotten.

Reaching the Maritime coast after a six-day journey, they took passage for Stockholm. The Baron said he became alarmed in Russia for his safety after the Bolsheviks came into power.

Baron Rosen represented Russia at Washington from 1905 to 1911. Upon the outbreak of the war he was interned in Petrograd and declared he believed the struggle would lead to "a new conception of political relations" because of his advocacy of ending restrictive measures against Finland in 1917, he was offered and declined the Governorship of that country. Later it was reported he would be returned to the United States as Ambassador by the Kerensky regime.

CHANGE IN SENTIMENT IN MEXICO

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 4.—Private and official advices from Mexico City are interpreted as indicating a sudden change in sentiment in the republic toward foreign investments in Mexico. The coming session of the Mexican Congress is expected to clear the atmosphere of much of the hostility shown since the adoption of the 1917 constitution. This apparent change is manifested in newspaper editorials and statements by members of the Mexican Congress.

The recent visit of the acting Minister of Finance to New York where he consulted with international bankers regarding a loan in Mexico helped change the standing of the Mexican government. He met little encouragement in New York beyond a promise of consideration when Mexico showed she would accept proper terms and protection to foreign investors.

William H. W. Nichols of Fallon, O., employed in the railroad shops for many years, demurred when his family insisted that he take a day off to celebrate his 85th birthday. He is a Civil War veteran.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 60 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as you all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

Protect Your Feet and Legs With Sturdy Comfortable Rubber Boots

When you're afloat in all sorts of weather, it's sound sense to give your feet and legs the best protection possible.

U. S. "Protected" rubber boots provide exactly that. They keep your feet and legs warm, dry and comfortable under the hardest conditions. They're specially designed for heavy service aboard ship or on dock.

Fishermen need these rugged, double-duty rubber boots, just like the boys did in the navy. The Government probably used more U. S. "Protected" rubber boots during the war than of all other makes combined.

There's economy as well as reliability in U. S. "Protected" rubber boots. Reinforced where the wear is greatest, they stand the gaff of hard usage. Longer wear means money saved.

Your dealer has exactly the kind of "U. S." you want, or can get it quickly. Remember, every pair bears the "U. S. Seal"—trade mark of the largest rubber manufacturer in the world. Look for this seal. It means protection for your feet, health and pocketbook.

The Lobby in Legislation.

In a communication to a New York newspaper a writer who is strongly opposed to prohibition comments on some changes that have taken place since the early days of this country. He speaks of the adoption of the constitution of New York state and mentions some of the men who were prominent in drafting and adopting that instrument, one of whom was Alexander Hamilton. The people at that time were so intent upon a complete separation of church and state that the constitution provided that no clergyman or priest should hold any office, civil or military, in the state. This was not because of any animosity to religion, but to make sure that the work of the state should not be interfered with in any way whatever by the church.

After commenting further on the great dignity and seriousness which marked the work of legislative bodies in those days, the writer speaks of modern conditions in connection with the work of law making. He speaks of the lobbyists "infesting the legislative halls, button-holing and browbeating the senators and assemblymen, threatening political death to each one of them who shall dare to disobey their orders and significantly boasting of the vast amounts of money they have at their command with which to make good their threats."

Here is pictured a condition that is not peculiar to the state of New York, for it is one that prevails in every state in the Union.

The lobby is altogether too common and too powerful in American legislation today. It reaches all the way from the legislature of the smallest state to the halls of Congress. It presses its measures by threats, by bribery, by political trading or any other means available. As a result there are many laws on the statute books, state and national, that are due to the successful efforts of the lobbyists.

And for a great deal of this work the people are to blame. There are so many special interests seeking legislation, some just and some of the most questionable character, that there is a wide and profitable field for men capable of influencing legislation, regardless of the means employed.

Manufacturing interests, labor interests, railroad interests and other interests of many kinds are before the legislatures and Congress every year seeking legislation of special benefit to them, and some of the brightest men in the country are employed to lobby the measures through. While this is going on the people pursue the even tenor of their way, many of them in utter ignorance of the legislation proposed, only to growl in vain when they wake up to find distasteful laws on the pages of the statute books.

It is not a healthy condition, but the only remedy is that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty. The people must come to understand that under our form of government there is a large responsibility resting upon them. They must know what is going on when the law makers are in session and not trust everything to luck and the lobby.

The Vermont people who wanted open fruit stores, ice cream parlors and moving picture houses on Sundays have been emphatically suppressed by the Legislature. There are parts of the country where they ways of the "fathers" still command respect, and the Green Mountain State appears to be one of them.

The field meetings to be held in the different counties of the state under the auspices of the Pomona Granges will be events of interest and profit to the tillers of the soil. Able speakers will be heard, the discussions will be entertaining and instructive, and without doubt the gatherings will be largely attended.

The Board of Health has planned a clean-up week for the latter part of this month, and there should be hearty co-operation on the part of the people of the city. The saying, "Cleanliness is next to Godliness," applies to municipalities as well as to individuals.

The Food Administration has taken its hand off the meat packing industry, which is now at liberty to conduct its business in its own way. It will be interesting to note results, but probably useless to look for lower prices as a result of the change.

Commuters between New York and the New Jersey summer resorts must hereafter have their photographs attached to their railroad tickets. One more reminder that the government is ruining the railroads.

The trout fishing season is open according to law, but not according to the weather. These belated wintry conditions will have to pass before there can be much satisfaction in whipping the streams.

The government has decided that, so far as the army is concerned, any beverage containing 1.4 per cent of alcohol will be considered intoxicating. Now is the time to volunteer.

PHILIPPINES TO RECEIVE FULL INDEPENDENCE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 4.—Members of the special mission of the Philippine Legislature are seeking immediate independence for the islands and were told today by Secretary Baker that he spoke President Wilson's mind when he said he believed the time had come to grant the complete independence desired by the Philippine people. Secretary Baker also said he believed the men would be able to carry home word that the American people loved liberty too dearly to deny it to others.

Manuel L. Quezon acting as spokesman for the mission said that there was now a stable government in the islands, managed and supported by the people themselves, and that it could be maintained if independence should be granted them. He declared that this was an opportune time to present the claims because of the principles for which the United States entered the world war. He said the mission brought to the United States a message of good will, gratitude and respect from all the inhabitants of the islands.

Francis Burton Harrison, Governor General of the Philippines, said that his experience in the islands had convinced him that the obstacles to independence that appeared to exist a few years ago had been cleared away.

STEEL FOR NAVY IN OPEN MARKET

TWO LADS DROWN AT FRANKLIN

(By Associated Press)

Franklin, N. H., April 4.—William Palm and Dan Gibson aged 13 years, were drowned today when they broke through the ice on a small pond near the Golden Rule Farm home where they lived. John Brooks, who was with them, was rescued by Rev. P. J. Franklin, Superintendent of the home.

BIG OFFER FIGHT A JOKE

(By Associated Press)

Great Falls, Mont., April 4.—It is developed today that the offer of $220,000 for the Willard-Dempsey fight made in a telegram to New York yesterday was signed "Great Falls Athletic Association." As there is no such association here sport followers regard the matter as a joke.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Yard Workmen Give Money.

The sum of $500 has been donated from the fund of the yard outside machinists for the Rotary and Elks District nursing association, to use as the management of that organization sees fit.

Still Holding On.

The number of workmen employed at the Charlestown yard still remains in the vicinity of 10,000.

Leave for Veterans.

Leave of absence is to be granted to veterans of the Spanish War employed at the Charlestown Navy Yard to enable them to attend the annual encampment in Lawrence beginning April 26 and continuing for three days.

Tug Goes to Shoals.

The tug Penacook made a trip to the Isle of Shoals today with radio-gunner W. P. Murphy who was called to Appledore Island in connection with the radio station there.

Not Much Work on Them.

The amount of work to be done on the two German ships to be sent to the Charlestown yard, according to advices from Washington, it is understood that only a new ventilating system is to be installed. The demand for the ships for transport services is too great to allow any long-time repairs to be made on them.

Noon Hour Boxing.

The second floor of Building 59 appears to be the place for a big gathering every noon hour, where several mix artists and wrestlers do a stunt in the ring and on the mat. The boxing exhibition of Church and Butler pleased the spectators and others who know a thing or two about the game are booked to go a few rounds later. It is evident that the outside machine shop crew are the real thing in sports.

Sixty-Five Took It.

Sixty-five employees of the Industrial Department have completed their examination for the eligible list of quartermen and leadingmen, which was concluded on Thursday. The examining board comprised A. J. Dutton, representing the civil service district at Boston, Commander Hyden and Lieut. Farrell.

Calling Machinists.

Ten machinists were called today for duty in the Industrial Department.

Making Few Repairs.

Minor repairs are being made on the tug Rodgay, before the boat starts for Boston with the collier Old Dominion the first of the week.

SURPRISE PARTY TO WALLACE E. BATSON

Lately Returned From Overseas—Called Upon by Friends.

Wallace Edmund Batson of New Castle, who has recently returned from service overseas, is receiving the heartiest of greetings from the residents of that town since his home coming, and last evening was given a surprise by a party of friends who gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Batson of New Castle.

Although unexpected the young man heartily welcomed his guests and all possible was done to have the evening filled with pleasant associations.

Games, music and dancing added to the interest of the occasion and the time passed right merrily. An interesting incident of the evening was the gift to Mr. Batson of a leather bill book, Miss Ruth Marvin making the presentation in behalf of the assembled friends. The recipient was much pleased with the gift and the friendly feeling that prompted his bestowal and thanked his friends heartily for their kindness. Refreshments of assorted cake, ice cream and fruit punch were served.

The young man, who served as a sergeant in the 499 Aero Squad, has been in the service since Nov. 29, 1917 and served at Fort Slocum, N. Y., San Antonio and Waco, Texas, North Carolina and at Langley Field, Va. He arrived in France on Oct. 10 and while he has had some interesting experiences his only regret is that he could not get there earlier and be in the thick of the fight.

At a late hour the guests dispersed after all had made the home-coming party an event worth while. Mr. and Mrs. Batson aided in every way to have the affair a success.

Mr. Batson is one of the popular young men of New Castle and held in high esteem. He attended the schools of that town and later the Portsmouth High school. For two years he was employed by the General Electric company of Lynn, Mass., leaving to enter the service. He returns to Lynn tomorrow to resume his former position with that company.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe, Mrs. Della Marvin, Charles Bevers, Mildred Gibson, Mildred Yeaton, Margaret Merrill, Ruth Marvin, William Gault, Alice Ryan, Ethel Ryan, Dorothy Thurston, Marion Parleton, Hazel Bicket, Mrs. James Sylvester.

The arrangements of the party were made by Mr. and Mrs. Batson, Miss Ruth Marvin and Mrs. James Sylvester.

OVERSEAS MEDICAL OFFICERS SCORED

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 4.—Charges of gross carelessness and negligence in preventing and controlling the spread of typhoid and para-typhoid fevers in the army are made against medical officers serving with the forces overseas in a circular published by the Chief Surgeon of the Expeditionary Forces and made public today by the Public Health Service, in connection with a warning that vaccination does not give complete immunity from typhoid.

MANY SICK REMOVED FROM MT. VERNON

(By Associated Press)

Boston, April 4.—The Mt. Vernon brought 73 sick men for whom ambulances were waiting at the pier.

AT THE WENTWORTH HOME.

In spite of the rain and sleet, the cold and wind of Sunday afternoon, March 30th, there came to the Wentworth Home, a party of eleven young philanthropists from the Middle St. Baptist church, Miss Gladys Hunt and her Sunday school class, bringing with them flowers and music, bright smiles and cheerful voices, evidently convinced that the more gloomy and depressing the conditions out of doors, the more important it was to brighten up matters in doors, which they at once proceeded to do, by singing many beautiful hymns and sacred songs, with a recitation now and then to vary the program, and two pleasing piano selections by one of the young misses. At the close of the entertainment they visited each of the rooms, to have a chat with those of the household who were unable to gather with the rest in the upper hall, though the concert had been heard by all. Then saying "Good bye" with a promise to come again, they once more braved the storm, as regardless of its violence as a levy of stormy petrels.

"This is the Time for America to Correct Her Unpardonable Fault of Wastefulness and Extravagance."

—Woodrow Wilson

THE COLLECTION of telephone bills that remain unpaid after the reasonable specified date is—

Wasteful—Because it consumes in work that should be unnecessary, time, effort, and expense that might be better devoted to necessary work.

EXTRAVAGANT—Because it lavishes upon work that should be unnecessary, the time, the effort, the expense, that might otherwise be concentrated on the important business of keeping telephone service up to standards.

TELEPHONE SUBSCRIBERS can make a large part of this collection work unnecessary, just by paying their telephone bills within a reasonable time.

EASTER SALE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Large Number Served Supper by Benevolent Society.

The directresses of the Benevolent Society of the Court Street Christian church held an Easter Sale and entertainment last evening in the vestry, the affair being a social and financial success. The attendance was good and so large a number patronized the supper that some of the tables were reset several times to accommodate late comers.

Supper was served from 5 to 7 o'clock, the appetizing menu including baked beans, potato salad, bread, fancy pies, assorted cake and coffee. The supper was in general charge of Mrs. Edwin Seavey assisted by an able committee.

The vestry was prettily trimmed with lavender and white crepe paper, this being arranged as streamers from the side walls and caught over the folding doors at the entrance to the parlor. The booths were prettily arranged with the purple and white to represent battle work.

The agent table was in general charge of Mrs. Jellison. The cake table was presided over by Miss Margaret M. Staples and the mystery table by Mrs. May C. Caswell. The pastor, Rev. Percy Warren Caswell, had charge of the entertainment which was presented at eight o'clock. The numbers were:

Plan solo Miss Locke
Each number on the program was heartily applauded and encores were given. The program was especially pleasing and all present much enjoyed the evening.

OBSEQUIES

James R. Philbrick.

The last sad rites over the remains of James Rufus Philbrick, one of Kittery's best known and most respected citizens, were held last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Second Christian Church in Kittery and attended by a large number of the townspeople, friends and fellowworkers of the deceased.

Riverside Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a charter member,

NOTICE

The Board of Health of Portsmouth directs that all persons who are engaged in collecting garbage and carrying it then the streets of the city in vehicles of any kind shall register their name and address with the Health Officer at the City Hall.

Those who neglect to do this before April 7th shall be subject to the fine and punishment provided in Section 12 Chapter 20 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Portsmouth.

attended in a body as did also a delegation of workmen from the shop at the Navy Yard where Mr. Philbrick was employed.

The service was in charge of Rev. Percy Warren Caswell, pastor of the Court Street Christian church of this city, assisted by Rev. Carl E. Nichols, pastor, and Rev. Edward H. Macey of Portland, Me., former pastor of the Second Christian church.

Rev. Mr. Caswell in the eulogy spoke of the splendid qualities of mind and heart of Mr. Philbrick, referring to him as a lover of his home as a good husband, a faithful deacon of the church, and a worthy brother in the Odd Fellows' Lodge; a respected citizen of Kittery, a man loved by his shopmates, a desirable neighbor, a good man and a true friend to every one. He lived, the speaker said, and was governed daily and even hourly by the Golden Rule laid down by the Master and was a consistent, thrifty man, and in spite of extreme pain that he suffered for the past two years he was patient, long suffering and kind. The example of such a life is worthy to emulate.

Rev. Mr. Macey spoke of Mr. Philbrick from the personal side, his association with him in the church and his interest in the good of the town of Kittery.

The Masonic Quartet from this city rendered the following selections: "Still, Still With Thee," "Asleep in the Arms of Jesus," "In Memoriam," "Only Remembered," "Shall We Meet Beyond the River." Mrs. Seward, the church organist, presided at the organ.

The officers of Riverside Lodge performed the burial service of that order. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes, and included among the number was a large piece to represent the "Gates Ajar," this being the tribute of the town of Kittery.

The honorary pallbearers were: Hon. Aaron B. Cole, Frank L. Parker, Clarence M. Prince, George D. Boudier, The deacons of the church, H. C. Moody, P. E. Donnell, Alexander Bennett and M. L. Dunbar, were acting pallbearers.

The funeral was planned for the evening by arrangements made by Mr. Philbrick some time before his death and gave evidence again of his thoughtfulness of others. That his friends and fellowworkers would not lose time from their duties he wished the service to be held in the evening that all could come, and his request was carried out. The remains were placed in the receiving tomb in Orchard Grove cemetery, Kittery. Oliver W. Ham had charge of the funeral arrangements.

William Quinn.

The funeral of William Quinn took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Father Sullivan celebrating high mass of requiem. The bearers were Michael Quinn, Charles Quinn, Dewey Quinn and James Scott. Interment was in Calvary cemetery under the direction of William P. Mackell.

ART METAL OFFICE FURNITURE

How many places did you have to look for that insurance policy last time you had occasion to refer to it? Every man has certain important papers, stock certificates, mortgages, notes, bonds, receipts, insurance policies, etc., for which there never is a place. You don't have to refer to them often, but when you do you want them quick. And without some definite place to keep them, they are apt to be shifted about from place to place till you can't find them when they are suddenly needed.

Assemble Art Metal sections any way you want them—as you want them. One way of putting it would be to say that Art Metal filing units are "adaptable" or "elastic." The individual units come in so many sizes—in so many styles, for so many purposes—for cards, books, papers of any and every size, nature and description. And these different units may be arranged in an innumerable variety of combinations to meet the demand of any business and to take care of the growth from the smallest beginning up to the greatest corporation.

Begin your Spring office cleaning by installing one or more of these units which we can show you in great variety. We will be glad to mail you the Art Metal Book "Book of Better Business" if you will phone us that you are interested.

DOCTORS AND

COMMENDED*Highly Praised for Action in Rescue of Two Workmen on January 10th.

Lieut. Henry L. Dyer, and Lieut. Wm. H. Small of the navy medical corps, attached to the Portsmouth navy yard dispensary, Edward A. McLean, Leadingman chipper and cutter, Edward J. Linchey, chipper and cutter employed in the Industrial Department, have been commended by Acting Secretary of Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt for meritorious work in connection with the rescue of two workmen, Ralph L. Wright of Rochester, and C. W. Martin of Newburyport, on submarine S-1 on January 10, 1919.

These men were working in a compartment of the submarine when the clothing of Martin took fire from hot metal. The use of a pyrene fire extinguisher to check the fire on the man's clothing filled the compartment with gas and both men were rendered unconscious. While they were kept alive by compressed air from a hose, other workmen were obliged to cut a hole in the bottom of the submarine to release them from their perilous position. They both died later at the Naval Hospital.

A BUSINESS SENSATION

The business block deal whereby the First National Bank takes possession of the property at the corner of Daniel street printed in Thursday's Herald was a sensation.
